

Spherical symmetry and potential energy functions

$$\Delta U_F := -\Delta W_F$$

- Spherical symmetry: Force is radial, magnitude is same at all locations with same radius
- Same work both along path I and along path II
- Possible to assign potential energy values to points (a), (b), and everywhere else that the test particle can be placed

